

LUNAR RETURN REPORT OF CAMERON DIAZ

INTRODUCTION

" I've never seen a moon in the sky that, if it didn't take my breath away, at least misplaced it for a moment.
-- Colin Farrell, Irish Actor

The Moon has been long known for its effect on planet Earth. Together with the gravitational pull of the Earth and the Sun it is known to influence the ebb and flow of oceans. The Earth's large moon makes it unique in the inner Solar System. Mercury and Venus have no moons, and Mars has only two small asteroid-sized objects orbiting it. Without the Moon, planet Earth would be much darker at night and the wonder of Eclipses would not exist.

The physical attributes of the Moon are known. Astrologers also associate the cycles of the Moon with human affairs, in particular, the emotions of individuals. This report delves into the effect of the Moon on your life as it cycles through your Horoscope. Every month, the Moon returns to the exact position it held in your Birth Chart at your time of birth. If you calculate this Return for the location of your current residence then you have what astrologers call a Lunar Return.

This Lunar Return can tell you the ebb and flow of your life in the following month. It is not a major influence but it can add colour and clarity to patterns, circumstances and events. Your physical and emotional reserves are described and this in turn helps you plan how to cope with everyday life during the course of the month.

This report is not a comprehensive tome outlining every detail of your Lunar Return chart. Rather it is intended to give you the broad brush influences of the Moon's cycles on your life.

When using these Lunar Return interpretations, please bear in mind that, inevitably, every chart will contain some contradictory influences. As a result, certain interpretations of different items in the same chart may seem difficult to reconcile. However, this may still be an accurate reflection of your Chart, as it is likely that you do experience conflicting desires, events and circumstances in your life. Usually, an astrologer will synthesise these apparent contradictions in order to present a cohesive and meaningful interpretation of any anomalies in your Horoscope.

YOUR TEMPERAMENT

“The moon puts on an elegant show, different every time in shape, colour and nuance.” -- Arthur Smith, English Comedian

The Moon

The Moon is the most important influence in your Lunar Return chart. Each month the Moon returns to the exact position that it had when you were born but other factors change. Therefore, the Lunar Return chart tells a story for a month. The Moon is said to be a strong influence on your emotions and mood. Its placement in your Lunar Return Chart reveals much about how you are affected during the phase of its influence. The Moon in its House shows the area of life that is pre-occupying you most during the month, where you are likely to be seeking emotional satisfaction. The other Planets also influence how easily you are likely to achieve that emotional satisfaction.

The Moon is in Taurus

The Moon is the most important influence in your Lunar Return Chart because it is the point on which the chart revolves. Your Lunar Return Moon Sign is always the same as the Sign in your Birth Chart. Nevertheless, it is important to recognise your own Moon Sign tendencies as the basis of this report. How you react and respond is through your own Moon Sign. With the Moon in the Sign of Taurus, the creature comforts of life appeal to you, offering a safe haven in a busy world. At times you may have difficulty rousing yourself to face new challenges, particularly if you're feeling insecure in your life. However, it is only that routine and familiar surroundings feel so safe in an unpredictable world. Fortunately, you also enjoy establishing order in your life, and this can rouse you from any temptation to overindulge. In fact, you can often be found quietly sorting through files and drawers, weeding the garden bed or some such useful activity. You may find comfort in everyday chores. Your down-to-earth nature usually asserts itself when needed. At other times you may be keen to enjoy the more sensual side of life. Indulging the five senses can be comforting. The touch of human skin, the taste of fine food and drink, the finer scents in your daily work, the sight of a beautiful person or scene and the sound of inspirational music all provide you with a sense of well-being. You may even have a talent in one or more of these areas. Astrologically speaking the Moon is exalted when in Taurus, emphasising that wonderful ability of yours to manifest the things that you need in your life, as well as for your friends and family. When you read the rest of this report you need to take note of your basic need for stability and security. If you are going through a particularly emotional month then this need is to the fore.

The Moon is in the 11th House

Friendships play a prominent role this month. One particular friend may be influencing your moods, or a whole group could be on your mind. You are pre-occupied with the nature of friendship, your involvement with groups and perhaps your own role in these areas. You are likely to be focussed on the balance between looking after other people and pursuing your own hopes, dreams and wishes. This month sees you seek the company of friends, join new groups or clubs and generally enjoy a more active social life. If you like networking and mingling with others then you are likely to enjoy this placement of the Moon in your Lunar Return Chart. If you are shy by nature then you may need to move out of your comfort zone in order to connect with others. Connection is likely to improve your mood, lift your spirits and inspire you to reach for your own hopes, dreams and wishes.

The Moon is Trine Pluto

Birth and renewal are themes in your domestic life. This could literally depict a pregnancy and birth of a baby, or it could more metaphorically indicate emotional renewal. Either way you are likely to experience some deep feelings this month, perhaps triggered by an event or a person. It is time for you to trust your own emotions. Your moods can be indicators of positive times or warnings of negative influences. You need to have confidence in your feelings of trust and distrust for anyone who plays a prominent role in your personal matters. If your emotional antennae tell you that someone is trying to manipulate or control you then you need to deal with this situation as soon as possible, even if it means walking away. Of course you feel sad as a phase of your life ends, or as you say goodbye to a special person, yet these can also be sacred times, where you learn to have faith in yourself. You are able to recognise your emotional strength as well as form strong bonds with those closest to you. Gradually you realise the privilege of shared emotional experiences and being intimately linked with another human being, whether this is through the process of birth, death, or perhaps marriage. The emotional bonds formed this month can be strong.

YOUR EMOTIONAL SATISFACTION

"Aim for the moon. If you miss, you may hit a star." -- W Clement Stone, Author, Philanthropist, Businessman

The Ascendant

The Ascendant or Rising Sign may not be as important as the Moon in a Lunar Return chart; however, it is a strong influence. Your Ascendant tells you how you are likely to try to achieve the emotional satisfaction that you require this month. Planets that influence the Ascendant are also of importance. The Moon remains the key factor in your Lunar Return Chart and your Ascendant provides the framework through which you can assimilate, understand and seek to express your emotional needs.

The Ascendant is in Gemini

Your Lunar Return Ascendant is the busy Zodiac Sign Gemini indicating that this is a month during which you desire distractions and stimulation. Your emotions need to be communicated or channelled through verbal or written avenues of expression. This is not your month to keep quiet about your feelings. It is a busy month during which you may be juggling several projects. Opportunities may arise out of the blue. Your life is full of activity. Your personal feelings are also likely to be a little chaotic. Hence you may seek the company of like-minded friends who can listen to your tales. During this eventful month you need to try to stay focussed on your priorities, as you can be easily distracted by your feelings. You need to be industrious without overdoing things. If life gets a little hectic then you can go with the flow rather than become stressed. The more that you can express yourself positively this month, then the more likely that you are to achieve satisfying results. Good news may also be a welcome sign that you are on the right track. You are likely to feel best when you are engaged in social activities, connecting with individuals and groups and perhaps even communing with nature. This is the ideal month to network in order to achieve emotional satisfaction.

YOUR TURNING POINT

"Turning Point: A time at which a decisive change in a situation occurs, especially one with beneficial results" --
Oxford Dictionary

Angular Planets

Astrologers note not only the Planets in a Horoscope but also the Angles and Houses. The Angles of a Chart are calculated and then the Planet or Planets influencing your Ascending and Descending Signs, and the Midheaven (MC) and Imum Coeli (IC) of your Horoscope become important. Planets which are close to these Angles are given extra significance. They are called Angular Planets. When a Planet is Angular in your Lunar Return Chart then this is of consequence. The nature of the Angular Planet sets the tone of your month. Sometimes these Planets indicate current events and emotional challenges or promises. The Moon still remains the most important theme of your month, but these Angular Planets give you extra information about what is likely to surface during this time. The Planets on the Angles of your Lunar Return Chart also indicate the months in which other astrological influences are triggered. Therefore, you may note the months during which you are experiencing the effects of an Angular Planet and those in which you are not. If there is no Angular Planet listed in this section then you can pay more attention to the themes and subtle influences. If there are Angular Planets then you are likely to experience an important event, hear some news of consequence or interact with a significant person. You may also experience months when you have more than one Planet affecting your Angles. These are likely to be key months of the year.

Jupiter is Opposite The Midheaven

Jupiter is known in Roman mythology as the Sky God, the supreme ruler. He was the great protecting deity of the race. Therefore, he was associated with oaths, treaties and morals. In mythology and astrology Jupiter represents the quest for meaning. Therefore, when Jupiter is prominent in your Lunar Chart these matters are likely to be highlighted. Home is where the heart is as the saying goes, and this is exactly where your heart is this month. You are keen to spend time at home. If you share your abode with others then the members of your household are likely to be your focus. If you live on your own then you may be eager to expand your household or to thoroughly enjoy your own company. Visitors may arrive during this month. Whatever your personal scenario your home and family bring good fortune and opportunities to grow and learn. This is your month to make positive changes in your living arrangements. These changes may involve redecorating, moving furniture or creating an area that reflects your need for more personal space. You may also plan or build extensions, or even move to a bigger house or to one closer to nature. This is the ideal time to enjoy your private life, make plans with loved ones and arrange your home so that it reflects happiness and enjoyment. You may also enjoy a hobby connected with your home and family such as researching your family tree, interior decorating or landscape gardening.

Neptune is Conjunct The Midheaven

The Planet Neptune has a subtle and yet significant effect when it is prominent in a Horoscope. This illusive Planet encourages you to seek meaning beyond the superficial. Neptune is the Planet of vision and beauty and when positively expressed manifests as idealism; when negatively expressed, as escapism. The positive attributes that can be embraced are beauty, art, spirituality, nature, charity and compassion. The negatives are disillusion, drugs, deception and avoidance of the truth. Obviously the challenge is to take up the positive and avoid the negative. In your case the Planet Neptune is influencing the 10th House of your Lunar Return Chart indicating that ambition needs to be replaced with a higher motive when it comes to your career this month. Paradoxically the more that you strive to get ahead the less satisfied you are likely to be in your work. This is your month to seek meaning in your profession, marriage and any public role that you hold. You need to slow down and contemplate your true aspirations. Spiritual goals are ready to surface. You may need to have the time to notice the subtle changes that are occurring now. If major astrological influences are at play then this could indicate an event or news that leaves you feeling temporarily lost. Otherwise you may simply feel vaguely dissatisfied with your lot in life. You may notice your role changing at work, or changes at work may be affecting your usual sense of self-confidence. Your home and family life may also be affected by your need for more satisfaction; however, most likely the emphasis is on your public life. This month is one during which you need to take a more contemplative approach. If possible let others take the lead in your working life, enabling you to be more creative. Slowly you gain clarity regarding the changes that are occurring. This is a period of slow transition, perhaps a spiritual awakening. Either way matters are out of your control. You need to let go rather than try to control events. Faith and hope are your friends.

YOUR VITALITY

" There is a vitality, a life force, an energy, a quickening, that is translated through you into action, and because there is only one of you in all time, this expression is unique." -- Martha Graham US modern dancer and choreographer

The Sun

The Sun is an important component of your Lunar Return report as, like the Moon, it is called a "luminary" rather than a planet. As such it illuminates personal matters which are close to your heart. The Sun shines its light on what you are likely to desire during the month. The Moon shows how your moods are affected by other people and by events. Therefore, the Moon also portends your emotional and physical health. However, the Sun depicts what you actively seek or desire this month. You may override your feelings and push for your own objectives, or you may go with the flow and pursue your personal goals. Either way the Sun illuminates what you actively seek during the month. Also importantly the Sun highlights your physical vitality during the month. It shows whether or not you are able to invest a lot of energy into your desires or if you should sit back and wait as your energy levels are low. Timing in astrology, and life, is everything. Your Sun Sign and placement in your Lunar Return chart can help you determine the best times to seek your desires. If you look at a sequence of your Lunar Return charts then you may see the rise and fall of your energy patterns. This will help you utilise the months of lower energy for planning and the months of high energy for action.

The Sun is in the 11th House

Your Sun is placed in what astrologers call a "Succedent House" in your Lunar Return Chart. This means that you have a reasonable amount of energy to fulfil your desires as long as you maintain a good balance. While your Moon is showing your emotions and the undercurrents of this month your Sun in the 11th House is indicating that your friends are likely to be the people you turn to in order to decipher your feelings. If you are feeling happy then you are likely to desire the company of others. Therefore, happy gatherings – small and large – are likely to feature this month. You enjoy having a distraction or an outlet for your cheerful demeanour. You may also join an interest group or club, or attend a place where many gather for a common cause. If you are going through a more introspective period then you may enjoy the company of just one or two friends in a more intimate environment. You may have just one close friend visit and stay in your own home. You are interested in the events and circumstances of your friends this month. You may need these as a distraction for your own troubled emotions, or you may enjoy hearing other people's stories. Your friends are likely to reflect your own fears and tears as well as share in your own triumphs. Even if you usually prefer your own company you are likely to seek the companionship of others this month. Camaraderie is the theme of this Lunar Return. Friends may come and go this month too, as you reassess what you need from others. Your own hopes, dreams and wishes are on your mind. Therefore, you may let go of friends who do not support you and embrace those who do. You are also likely to be pondering whether or not you are a good friend. As poet Ralph Waldo Emerson once said: "The only way to have a friend is to be one."

You are likely to benefit from group activities that boost your energy levels including physical activities such as team sports, group meditations, yoga and any class connected to well-being.

The Sun is in Aries

The Zodiac Sign of your Sun is not a major influence in your Lunar Return Chart. However, it is worth noting its general influence on you and those around you. Astrologers say that the Sun is Exalted when in the Zodiac Sign Aries meaning that you are likely to have good vitality this month. You are headstrong, able to conquer most things that you set your mind to. You are likely to be more independent now, able to plan, prepare and complete your goals. You are full of vim, free-spirited and active. You may benefit from directing some of your excess energy into physical activities. You need to be wary of being too headstrong. If you suffer from headaches then you may want to slow down and reassess your objectives. Egocentric behaviour is unproductive this month. You are better advised to enjoy your abundance of good health and pursue your goals with grace and enthusiasm.

The Sun is Trine Saturn

The planet Saturn is influencing your Sun so serious matters are raised this month. In other words duties and responsibilities are highlighted with only a few light-hearted moments. You may feel lethargic, a bit despondent and lacking motivation at times. Your wisest course of action is to plan a schedule and stick to it. Step-by-step you can accomplish what you set out to achieve. This placement of the planet Saturn tells you which area of your life is most affected. The positive side of the combination is that you can achieve your objectives as long as you apply yourself to any given task. You also need to plan some rest and recreation, even if only in small timeslots. If you need to withdraw from social or frivolous activities then this may be a temporary fix. An important lesson from this month is likely to be learned. Nevertheless, you do not need to be lonely or suffer in silence. This is your opportunity to tackle serious matters and work through them. You can share this lesson with others. Let your loved ones know where you stand this month.

The Sun is Conjunct Uranus

When the exciting planet Uranus plays with your Sun then you can expect some surprises this month. You are likely to radiate energy. Personal freedom is linked with your health so that the more that you feel free to express your true self the more vibrant that you are likely to feel. Obstacles are likely to be zapped so that they no longer hold you back. Your month to be free to express yourself in new and exciting ways. For this reason this month is an excellent one during which to eradicate bad habits and replace them with new healthy ones. This combination puts a little zing in your life. If you are usually a creature of habit then you may find this month a little unsettling as changes are likely. The erratic nature of events may throw you a little off balance. However, if you can go with the flow then you are likely to enjoy good health and good spirits. In other words you can enjoy the sparks that fly. This is an excellent period during which to start new activities that enhance your physical, emotional and mental well-being.

The Sun is Square Pluto

Whenever Pluto melds with the Sun in your Lunar Return Chart it indicates a month of discovery. Your energy levels are likely to be variable depending on how well you can express yourself. If you are in touch with your authentic self then this is likely to be a period during which you can lead, influence and teach others. However, if you are not living according to your true self then you may experience problems expressing yourself, particularly when interacting with people in positions of authority. The trick is to be as truthful as possible with yourself. You may need to withdraw from time to time in order to collect your thoughts. Processing thoughts and feelings is part of your story right now. This combination calls for integrity. The noun "integrity" is described in the Oxford English Dictionary as: "The quality of being honest and having strong moral principles."

COMMUNICATING YOUR NEEDS

“Words are singularly the most powerful force available to humanity. We can choose to use this force constructively with words of encouragement, or destructively using words of despair. Words have energy and power with the ability to help, to heal, to hinder, to hurt, to harm, to humiliate and to humble.” -- Yehuda Berg, Rabbi and Author

Mercury

Mercury is the planet of communications. This merry planet is always full of contradictions, toing and froing between dual options. Therefore, Mercury in a Lunar Return Chart represents how well you express your feelings and how easily you are distracted from achieving health and well-being. Self-awareness is the key to success in many aspects of life. Mercury here tells you how you can become more self-aware and what types of activities may stimulate good health.

Mercury is in the 11th House

Your connections with other people are emphasised this month. This could be because you enjoy being part of a group or team. Perhaps your work situation alters, requiring you to now become a member of a team, changing your role in the group or thrusting you into a group leadership role. However, it may be that a situation in your life is prompting you to seek the counsel of friends. You may be reassessing your own hopes, dreams and wishes in the light of your emotional needs. You may be in two minds about a matter that is close to your heart. You seek advice from others but be wary of relying too heavily on other people’s opinion. Experts can be helpful but friends may be biased. While your connections to your friends, colleagues and loved ones are important it is also a good month during which to listen to your own intuition. As singer Sting says in one of his songs “Let your soul guide you upon your way...”

YOUR DRIVE AND DETERMINATION

"The price of success is hard work, dedication to the job at hand, and the determination that whether we win or lose, we have applied the best of ourselves to the task at hand." -- Vince Lombardi, US Coach

Mars Saturn

The planets Mars and Saturn highlight your drive and determination in any given month. The fiery Mars shows which areas are likely to demand your attention and whether or not you have the energy to deal with these demands. The serious planet Saturn depicts the degree to which you are likely to apply yourself to any given task. Together, they represent challenges as well as your ability to rise to these challenges. Planets in a Lunar Return chart are not as important as the Moon and Sun unless they connect with an Angle (as explained in a previous section). Nevertheless, it is worth looking at the influence as another piece of information about your month.

Mars is in the 6th House

As many astrologers rightly proclaim Mars is the planet connected with energy. Energy has a negative and a positive force. When you focus energy positively then through decisive action you can achieve results. However, if you are rash then this can result in accidents, conflict and misguided behaviour. Mars is also the planet that is connected with fast vehicles, sporting arenas and sharp instruments. Hence the need to utilise these things carefully rather than recklessly. When the planet Mars resides in the 6th House of your Lunar Return Chart lifestyle is an area that requires your attention. This month you have the drive to develop a healthier lifestyle. You are motivated to stop any bad habits and develop new positive ones. This does not involve a dramatic one-off statement but rather a concerted effort to live more healthily. You may change your diet, start a new exercise regime or take up a new sport. Sports, fitness and masculine type activities may appeal. You can release much daily tension through a session at the gym or a bout of kick-boxing. If you are responsible for others in your working life then right now is the time for a change of leadership style. You may feel tired if you don't make the necessary changes in the way that you work. Your workplace is likely to attract your attention and result in a change of venue or a change in style. At the very least you could benefit from adding some personal touches to your work environment. This month you need to avoid conflict with coworkers and aim for either a more productive working relationship or, if this does not work, a change of job. You are ready to make the changes that improve the quality of your daily life. This means the basic things in life, the skills that improve your health and well-being.

Mars is Conjunct Saturn

The time has come to slow down and be diligent. This combination applies not only to you but also likely to many of the people around you. You are likely to be frustrated and tired if you rush into anything right now. The idea is to think about long-term benefits rather than short-term gratification. Therefore, this is the ideal month during which to plant the seeds for lasting projects, businesses or physical activities. Endurance is the key.

Mars is Square Neptune

Life may seem like it is in slow motion this month. If you think of a film or television series that uses slow motion as a technique then you can visualise the effect. Everything slows down. This can emphasise the beauty or harshness of the events happening on the screen. The planets are aligned in such a way as to emphasise certain matters in your life. This is so that you can truly appreciate the patterns that occur. In your case it is likely that you have the opportunity to slow down and notice the beauty of small things even if you don't want to. As a result you are more sensitive, creative and perhaps even artistic. You can utilise this to your benefit as long as you don't try to speed things up. Enjoy taking a moment whenever you can to work with this phenomenon. If you push yourself or others then you may find that you are forced to slow down through lethargy or even illness. If you are tired then rest. If you have the chance to take some time out then do so. This may be frustrating but eventually you realise that it is temporary and beneficial in the long run. If you are distracted and want to go and play rather than work then do so if this is practical. If not try to find ways to enjoy your work. Be creative.

Saturn is in the 6th House

The planet Saturn is known as the taskmaster of the Zodiac. Sometimes it is thought to be a hard taskmaster. At other times it is known that this planet's influence is essential in achieving any set task. As such Saturn steadily helps you attract the tools that you need to achieve your objectives. The choice about whether or not you pick up your tools is yours; however, you also then live with the consequences. These can be either opportunities lost or satisfaction guaranteed. This is your month to develop a strong work ethic, if you don't already have one. If you are a hard worker, then this is your moment to reap the benefits of your hard work. Work, service and health are highlighted. It is important that you don't overdo things; otherwise your body is likely to show signs of strain. You need to pay attention to your daily workload, how you structure your days and how you apply yourself to your job. This is a month to focus on the details, rather than the big picture. For instance, if you lift heavy objects, how do you take the strain? Are you following the proper procedures for lifting and carrying correctly? Or are you straining your body by carrying out your job incorrectly? If you are paying attention to the procedures, in any work-related area, then you are likely to enjoy a month during which your efforts are rewarded. This is also a month during which you benefit by paying attention to the details of your daily life. It is time to get organised and pay your bills, catch up on paperwork and filing, fix any appliances that are not working to your advantage and generally de-clutter.

YOUR SOCIAL NEEDS

"Life is not measured by the number of breaths we take, but by the moments that take our breath away." -- Maya Angelou US author, dancer, actress and singer

Venus Jupiter

The Lunar Return Chart tells more about energy levels and urges to direct energy than it does about events that occur. The more joy that can be experienced then the better your energy levels is likely to be. Joy equals vitality. Two of the most positive planets – Venus and Jupiter – describe the areas that come alive this month and offer the most pleasure. Although the Moon, the Sun and Planets on the Ascendant are key to this report, it is also useful to look at the placements of Venus and Jupiter so that you can determine where to find gratification.

Venus is in the 10th House

The planet Venus is all about attraction. What attracts you, what makes you attractive to others and how can you attract what you need? Therefore, Venus tells you about your relationship with love, money, pleasure, joy and feeling worthwhile. In a Lunar Return Chart this planet of love tells you what you are likely to attract throughout the month, what gives you pleasure right now. It depicts whether or not personal relationships are likely to be prominent, what kind of personal relationships and whether or not you are likely to be focussed on money and pleasure. In your case you stand to gain joy and rewards in your professional life. It is also possible that you meet someone who inspires you in your working life. One person, a woman, might be the source of rewards and pleasant improvements. Groups of women may also inspire you. Whatever your situation you are likely to enjoy your working life, socialising and networking to improve your standing in your professional community. You may receive a financial boost through your work associations, perhaps a tip-off that is beneficial or cash in hand. Your career and associated public roles are a source of joy this month.

Venus is Trine Mars

The combination of the planets Venus and Mars indicates that relationships are a motivating factor this month. Positive relations with loved ones give you energy. On the other hand drama or conflicts can be debilitating if you let them. The good news is that with this combination you are likely to have diplomatic skills. You can be the healing influence in your relationships, as you help to calm heated situations. Money matters may also be in the mix this month. You are likely to be motivated to work harder for your financial benefit, and for the benefit of those close to you.

Jupiter is in the 4th House

In traditional astrology Jupiter is the planet of Kings. This planet brings rewards wherever it is placed in a chart. Of course Kings can be benevolent and magnificent, or they can be maleficent. Therefore, there is an element of choice in association with Jupiter. In your Lunar Return Chart this planet of largess depicts where you are likely to attract rewards and recognition. Good fortune can be yours if you act with humility and wisdom. Growth is possible wherever Jupiter reigns. This is a month of good news in the family, as well as an opportunity to expand your living arrangements. You have the chance to move to a larger house, or a house in a spacious area, or to add on rooms. You need room to breathe in your home, and right now you have the chance to create some space. On the other hand you may be planning a home office, or a retreat in which you can meditate and broaden your perspective. You may spend more time with family members, enjoying your role and feeling a sense of belonging. Whatever your personal circumstances you can be assured that this is a busy time in connection with home, family and property. If you are not making major changes then you may choose to clean out cupboards, discard unused items and make room for the new. It is time to expand your horizons. Your need to improve your living quarters probably comes from a realisation that it is time to be released from the past to make way for new growth.

CONCLUSION

You will have noticed that there are many influences in your Lunar Return Chart, some conflicting with others. It is important to remember that this is a Lunar report and therefore anything associated with the Moon needs to be given precedence. The main themes will be repeated throughout this report but an understanding of the Moon is crucial.

Others may also share the planetary effects that are in your Lunar Return Chart. Therefore, this report can give you personal guidance and also highlight influences in other people's lives.
