PROGRESSED MOON

Progressed Moon

The progressed Moon is considered important. The background theme of a person's life can be seen when the progressed Moon changes sign and house. Aspects of the progressed Moon can also be important in the timing of events. Some astrologers consider that the Moon lends its light as it aspects other points in the Natal Chart. Hence a point's importance is highlighted when aspected by the progressed Moon. The progressed Moon is the most important point because it is the only one that progresses through the entire zodiac during the course of a person's life.

Progressed Moon Phase is Crescent

Moon 45 to 90 degrees ahead of the Sun.

It's time to allow your light to shine. For the past few years you have been at the beginning of a new life cycle, exploring new opportunities in your relationships, home, hobbies and career. Anything new started in the past few years will start to gain momentum in this phase. A new home, job or relationship begins to take shape during this phase. If you have chosen well during the previous phase then you are likely to reap the benefits of a rewarding home life, blossoming career, or supportive marriage. However, if you have been rash in your choices you may now have to make adjustments in these areas. Either way you begin to feel driven to make things happen. Asserting yourself becomes a goal. You recognize that you are entering a period of creativity and you feel a strong urge to take action to achieve your dreams. Sometimes this requires a change of attitude by you, or your friends and family. Adjustments may be necessary as you readily embrace a new way of life. This can be challenging if other people have not attuned to the changes in you. You now need to assert yourself, ensuring that you continue to move forward in your life. Otherwise, this could be a frustrating phase of your during which you feel that you are not making the progress that you would ideally like to be making. On the whole though your creativity and energy is likely to propel you closer to your dreams, with or without the co-operation of your loved ones and colleagues.

Progressed Moon in Cancer

From 23 Oct 2021 To 07 Apr 10394 06:10

Your nesting instincts are strong during this phase. This does not necessarily mean that you want to start a family, although this could be the case. This can be the ideal time for pregnancy and childbirth. However, it can also mean that you want to find a home that is most suitable to your needs. If you are comfortable in your own home then you may simply redecorate or renovate. However, if you feel that you have outgrown your current abode then you are likely to move. Perhaps you look further a field than your local neighbourhood, setting your sights on travelling to a different location, even a different country. You may invest in real estate, perhaps purchasing a second property for recreation or retreat. If you have been itinerant in the previous few years then you may now feel an urge to settle down in one place. Whatever the scenario you are seeking to solace and satisfaction in your home. You may feel the need to spend more time with your family and close friends. Perhaps one family member is demanding more of your time, wanting you to keep them company or needing some extra loving care. Your compassion is aroused now and you are more able to take care of yourself and loved ones. You may also enjoy seeking your family roots, visiting older relatives, researching your family tree and visiting ancestral places. All of these pastimes may help you better understand your familial background. Pets may also feature during this phase. If you don't already have a loved pet then you may feel the need to seek out a pet. Either way animals can be a great source of comfort. Children, too, can demand your time and care. If you enjoy spending time with loved ones then this can be a rewarding phase, however; if you find the care of others an onerous task then you may struggle with this phase. Perhaps ultimately you decide that you are most comfortable when living on your own. The emphasis is on you finding your own comfortable situation so that you are ready for the next creative phase of your life.

Progressed Moon in the Natal 1st House

From 23 Oct 2021 To 16 Apr 10394 14:41

This is your time to shine, to receive the rewards of your previous hard work and accolades for your achievements. Perhaps you have been secretly working away on a project, concentrating your efforts on behind the scenes activities or quietly pouring your energies into a budding relationship? Now you can step forward and declare your interests. For instance you may have been working quietly and steadily on a written project, which you are hoping will one day be published. Now is the right time for you to seek publishers and recognition for your work. Perhaps you have been persistently working on a business idea, consulting financial planners and setting up a network of contacts and colleagues, searching for the appropriate venue or establishing a home office. Now you can reap the rewards of your networking. Whatever the scenario now is the right time to assert yourself and consciously seek your happiness. It is also the ideal time to reassess your personal image and habits. A new health regime will give you the boost needed to cope with this phase. You may change your personal fashion style, your hair and clothes in a way that more authentically reflects your personality. The sign of your progressed Moon will also show you the manner in which you are likely to assert this new assertive side of your nature. For instance if your progressed Moon is in a fire or air sign then you are likely to be more gregarious and inspirational, making quite dramatic changes. It is likely that they are not as committed as you would like and this is confusing you. You may simply need to wait until your loved one can settle down. On the other hand you may have to let go and accept that the relationship is going nowhere. If you are single, you could become focused on finding someone to share your life. It is possible that your feelings for someone are strong but are not returned. It would be better if you were able to change the focus of your attention. You need to nurture yourself and share pleasurable times with your friends and family, knowing that someone better is waiting in the wings. ### Progressed Moon in the Natal 2nd House

From 16 Apr 10394 14:41 To 31 May 10396 13:25

It's time to reflect on your personal values rather than living your life to please other people. You now feel the urge to build up your own self esteem, listen to your intuition and invest your time and energy in areas of life that mirror your personal interests. In other words you are taking the focus off other people and their needs and placing it firmly on your own. You are keen to capture a sense of well-being and abundance in your personal life. This also reflects in your personal finances. You may withdraw your monetary support from joint projects or investments with a view to investing in your own financial security. This is the ideal phase for lifetime financial planning. As a result of your planning you may change your employment with a view to boosting your income. As your self-esteem increases, you may also feel an urge to apply for a promotion, thereby receiving an increase in your income. It is possible that your increased sense of self worth also leads to changes in other areas of your life, such as decisions to improve your housing or personal relationships or change career. The sign of your progressed Moon will also show you the area of your life most likely to be affected by this new confidence and self-esteem! If you started a new family in the previous phase then you are likely to enjoy doing fun activities with your children, perhaps interacting with like-minded friends or taking part in group activities. If you put your career on hold to have a family then perhaps you are now ready to start devising ideas about whether or not to return to work and what type of work is now appropriate. On the other hand you may simply have reached a stage of life during which you are eager to explore your artistic talents or develop your own creative projects. Perhaps you built a new home and now you are ready to decorate. On the other hand you may have established a new home in a new neighbourhood and now you are ready to explore the community facilities and possible friendships. No matter what specific area of your life is highlighted, generally speaking you are eager to seek out new and rewarding personal experiences. Responsibilities do not sit well on your shoulders during this phase and you are likely to balk if anyone tries to burden you with too many duties. The only drawback to following your inner urges during this phase of life is that you may be a little too self-centred. You need to find the right balance between satisfying your own needs and taking into account other people's needs. You may find it difficult to listen to loved ones, but this is important if you are to be truly satisfied and supported during the next phase. The more that you can be inclusive and generous with family, friends and associates, the more you will reap the benefits in the next stage of the cycle. This is the ideal time to boost your self-esteem through playful and imaginative activities, to explore creative ideas with the view to starting new projects. You could be very productive once you follow your heart's desires and learn to harness other people's support.

Are you truly aware of the impact that your personality has on others? Are you compassionate and empathetic? You need to seriously ask yourself how you are contributing to any problems that you have in relating to others. The more that you can take responsibility for your own personality the more that you are likely to achieve good health and happiness.
